SUPREME COURT DECISION

The Supreme Court of the State of Nevada

The State of Nevada Ex Rel
George Bachelder, Plaintiff and Relator, against
M. A. Murphy, District Judge of the First Judicial District of the State of Nevada.

Defendant and Respondent.

This is a proceeding in Mandamus to compel the respondent as Judge of the First Judicial District Court to proceed to hear and determine the case of George Bachelder, Plaintiff v. Rose Ann Bachelder, Defendant alleged to be pending in said District Court.

In his petition relator among other things alleges:

That he commenced his action for divorce on the 23rd day of February A. D. 1905; that on the 25th day of March 1905 the defendant appeared in the action through her attorneys, Messrs. Currier and King, they filing an answer to the complaint; that on the 4th day of December 1905 the respondent set the case for trial before a jury on the 21st day of December 1905, plaintiff's attorney in said case, C. E. Mack, Esq., appeared and requested the respondent to proceed with the trial of the case; that respondent refused to do so giving and stating his reasons for so refusing as follows:

"The said defendant is insane and confined in the Asylum for Mental Diseases at Reno, Nevada," and that this relator, through his attorney, the said C. E. Mack, thereupon made a demand upon the said respondent to proceed with the trial of said action, but that the said respondent then and there refused and does now refuse to proceed with the trial thereof and will not proceed to the trial of said action, without an order of this Court compelling him so to do.

The respondent's refusal to proceed with the trial of the case is based on the fact of the defendant's insanity. The complaint however alleged that the acts constituting the cause of action in plaintiff's favor against the defendant were committed by the defendant before the insanity occurred.

Under these circumstances, I think the fact of the insanity of the defendant was not sufficient to justify the respondent in his refusal to proceed with the trial of the case.

In his return or answer to the alternative writ herein the respondent sets up other matters in justification of his refusal to proceed with the trial, to wit, a doubt whether or not the summons in the action had been properly served, the absence of the defendant's attorneys, etc.

As the case stands on the petition and answer these matters cannot avail him under his admissions that he would never try the case while defendant was insane. He did not deny or answer the allegations in the petition that on account of the insanity of the defendant he would not even in future try the case. The allegation stands admitted by the fact of its being denied.

The other matters alleged in the answer to the petition might perhaps have justified the respondent in his refusal to proceed with the trial at the time mentioned. But if such were the case he should have signified to Counsel his willingness and intention to proceed with the trial at the proper time; and also have let them know wherein he deemed their proceedings irregular and insufficient so that they could have amended and corrected them and at some time gotten a trial of the case.

Therefore without passing on the questions of the sufficiency of the service of summons in the case or any of the other matters stated in the answer of respondent except the single one of the sufficiency of defendant's insanity as a bar to proceeding with the orderly hearing and determination of the case, it is ordered that the mandate of this court issue to the respondent that he proceed with the hearing and determination of the case, of course, first satisfying himself upon all questions of service of summons, guardianship and jurisdiction.

TRY TO RAISE BODY WITH BREAD

CAMDEN, N. J., July 16.—Hundreds of loaves and pieces of bread have been hurled into Cooperstown creek here, as a result of an old superstition to coax to the surface the body of Jos. Torbeck. A reward of $100 has been offered for the recovery of the body and divers and swimmers have tried in vain to find it. Joseph and his brother James, were drowned in the creek while in swimming. The next day the body of James was found, but that of Joseph is still missing.

Two men were killed by sunstroke at Bakersfield yesterday.
